"They will not vote away the comforts of themselves, their wives and competition with the Japanese, and that cost only a few dollars, and requiring almost no clothing at all."

After such an array of argument any one should still refuse to vote for McKinley and the gold standard is simply preposterous and outrageous. After Wm. Brown & Co.have plastered the county with posters saying they will pay 12 cents a pound for wool if McKinley is elected, and the States. man has told you that rice and rats is all you will have to eat if you don't vote for McKinley, there ought not be a Bryan vote left in the county. Wm. Brown & Co. are not saying what they willpay for hops if McKinley's elected, because hops already have a duty of 8 cents a pound, or for wheat that has a duty of 20 cents a bushel. And yet hops and wheat go right up steadily ing under the authority aforesaid, the in face of the free silver agitation. Perhaps if the agitation proceeds wool may begin to rise too, and we may yet all be saved living on rice and rats, and red pepper and beans.
